Air Quality Forecast for the UK

Issued by the Met Office

Today: Low levels of air pollution are expected across the UK on Thursday. Outbreaks of showery rain helping maintain Low levels across southern and central areas.

Tomorrow: Levels of air pollution are forecast to be Low across the UK on Friday with a continuation of unsettled conditions, especially across central and southern parts.

Outlook: Low levels of air pollution largely expected through the outlook period. However over the Bank Holiday weekend there is a chance of Moderate levels at times across parts of Wales, southwest and northern England, and pockets across eastern Scotland and, on Monday, Northern Ireland.
